

“Hello, how are you?”

With the need to keep social interactions to a minimum we understand that you may at times be feeling a little isolated and alone.

Compassionate Communities Bundanoon and the Bundanoon Branch of the Country Women's Association together with Quest for Life, have set up a free community service we like to call “Hello, how are you?”

If you would like a call from a friendly volunteer every day or every few days, simply fill out this short form and return it to 32 Erith Street Bundanoon or call Monika on 0432 546 788 and we will be in touch with you very soon.

Name: _____

Phone: _____

How often would you like a call – tick which days you would like a call.

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday Sunday

The hours you will receive your call are between 10am and 4pm

If we can't get in touch with you on the day is there a family member, relative or close friend who knows you and is able to pop in and check all is well?

Family/friend contact details if we can't get in touch with you:

Name: _____

Phoner: _____

Please note this is a phone service only, but if you need other services or help, please let your friendly volunteer caller know, and they will put the right services in touch with you.

Privacy details: Compassionate Communities will only use the information you provide for the purpose of giving you a regular call, contacting the family/friend if we can't contact you and passing on your details to other services if you request other assistance.

Compassionate Communities is a subcommittee of the BCA

Document version 20200320

Bundanoon Community Association (BCA)